

2012 Johns-Putra Australian Junior Elite Training Squad

Application form for the Australia Junior Chess League's 2012 JETS Training Squad *sponsored by Johns-Putra Ltd.

The Australian Junior Chess League is pleased to invite applications from talented Australian juniors (U/18) for the national junior training squad.

The JETS Squad is Australia's premier development squad, aimed at encouraging and challenging the next generation of Australian champions. (Past JETS members have gone on to become Grandmasters and International Masters.)

Applicants are judged by enthusiasm and commitment as well as rating, with priority for applicants aged 14 and under.

30 players will be selected, including at least 10 players of each gender.

Eligibility for the Squad will require participation in at least one of the national Championship (Geelong) or Junior (Melbourne) Championships, or the Queenstown Classic in January 2012. (A very small number of exceptions may be made in extenuating circumstances.)

The 30 selected members of the 2012 JETS Squad should commit to attend the national junior training camp, in Melbourne from July 2-7, where they will receive free coaching by Grandmasters and International Masters, plus compete in a training tournament and a Grandmaster simultaneous exhibition.

Additional half or full day mini-camps, free for JETS Squad members, may be held in other major cities, usually in conjunction with a Grand Prix weekend tournament.

In the first half of the year, JETS Squad members will occasionally be set homework.
